

Kathryn Crowweller

www.kathryncrowweller.com

Kathryn is a Christian singer based in the south-west of England. She has been singing songs to celebrate the Lord since she returned from a week in Taizé — a Christian pilgrimage site in France.

The style of music in Taizé — simple, repetitive chants covering many denominations of Christianity — has influenced Kathryn's own music. Her albums include songs from a variety of traditions and aims to maintain the simplicity of devotion which opened her heart to God for the first time.

Praise for “Our Father”:

“Beautifully sung Kathryn...you have such an angelic voice :-) I love it...”

“The purpose of all Christian music is to glorify God and bring us closer to him in praise and worship. You have achieved this beautifully, Kathryn—bless you for it!”

Praise for ‘I Watch the Sunrise’:

“Absolutely beautiful hymn, and beautifully sung...x”

“Beautiful performance...in my opinion, the best version of this classic.”

“Such a beautiful voice — my favourite hymn too.”

Kathryn is available for beautiful and spiritually uplifting concerts, festivals, private functions and many other occasions. Please visit her website for more information.